SUBJECT: DANES WEIGHING CONTRIBUTION FOR PAKISTAN DONORS' CONFERENCE

REF: SECSTATE 32712

11. (SBU) PolOff, accompanied by Japanese and Pakistani counterparts, met April 8 with MFA's Team Leader for Pakistan Jesper Thomsen. Thomsen told us that the Danes will be represented in Tokyo by MFA Political Director Carsten Damsgaard, who will also soon assume additional duties as Denmark's Special Envoy for Afghanistan and Pakistan.

12. (SBU) Thomsen confirmed that Denmark will provide 2 million Danish Kroner (approx. USD 350,000) in counterterrorism assistance to Pakistan this year. Thomsen expressed confidence that Denmark would make an additional pledge of assistance in Tokyo, but would not speculate on the amount, noting that this would be decided by FM Moeller and Danish Minister for Development Assistance Ulla Toernaes this week. Thomsen explained that while Denmark's main development assistance effort remained targeted in Africa, Denmark nevertheless was "committed to helping democratize and stabilize" Pakistan, and thus was willing to consider re-directing some bilateral assistance there.
